

Picture yourself in Darlington...

Are you an aspiring, newly-qualified or experienced social worker?

Picture yourself:

- Working in a small team with a manageable caseload.
- Enjoying regular training and access to senior managers.
- Moving to a vibrant borough within easy reach of the Lake District, Durham Dales, North York Moors and a beautiful coastline.
- Falling in love with an ingenious town with low living costs, a variety of housing, a choice of urban and rural living and an average house price of £125,000.
- Living in a town with outstanding schools and colleges, excellent transport links and lots of green space on your doorstep.
- Being part of a social care culture that encourages and embraces innovative practice.

Moving to Darlington could be the best decision you'll ever make.
