

GLEBE HOUSE

FRIENDS THERAPEUTIC COMMUNITY TRUST

Founded 1965

Our Charitable Trust provides specialist interventions for young men with a known history of sexually harmful behaviours.

Case services include:

- Residential Treatment Service to address harmful sexual behaviour in older teenagers
- A well defined Therapeutic Community model that promotes young people developing their understanding and taking responsibility
- An independence transition service
- The provision of on-site education
- Community based assessment and intervention work
- Tailor made outreach programmes for young men leaving our care
- Circle of support where appropriate
- Registered Independent School – CQC Registered

Our results are validated as successful by a substantive longitudinal study over 12 years.

Underpinned by over 50 years successful provision of therapeutic care, Glebe House offers an emotionally secure and monitored environment, which supports adolescent males who are a risk (emotionally and physically) to themselves, to children, to their families and to the wider community.

A huge benefit for young people and local residents alike, is that Glebe House is set in a rural location.

Residents are referred to us by local authorities and social services or as directed by the Court. Over an average of two years, residents are encouraged to recognise and effectively reduce risks and threats. The aim is to assist them to learn how to maintain socially and legally acceptable standards of behaviour, so that they can resume independent living in the future.

Young people benefit from exceptional, inspirational and unique care. They are each valued as individuals and as part of the Therapeutic Community. All young people experience an intensive and holistic support package. This helps them to understand, acknowledge and address offending behaviour.
