A new model for social care

In Birmingham we have been through some tough times... but things are improving quickly. We're making decisive and sustainable changes to improve outcomes for our most vulnerable children, young people and adults. We need social workers who share our ambitions for excellence. We can offer you high quality training and support and a remarkable breadth of opportunities in a uniquely diverse and exciting community.

To join us and become part of an ambitious revolutionary service, find out about our great opportunities and our full range of benefits, visit www.birmingham.gov.uk/childrenscarecareers and www.birmingham.gov.uk/jobs

For more information on both directorates, visit the links below:
Adult & Communities – www.birmingham.gov.uk/adults Children, Young People & Families – www.birmingham.gov.uk/childrens-care children & young people matter BIRMINGHAM adults and communities

be one in a million

Birmingham City Council